

The Word of God

First Reading

Isaiah 61:10 – 62:3

Larry Johnson

I will greatly rejoice in the LORD,
my whole being shall exult in my God;
for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation,
he has covered me with the robe of righteousness,
as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland,
and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
For as the earth brings forth its shoots, and as a garden causes what is sown in it to spring up, so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring up before all the nations.
For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.
The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
and you shall be called by a new name that the mouth of the Lord will give.
You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

Psalm 147:13-21

Laudate Dominum

Roland Woehr (b. 1958)

The people repeat the refrain after the cantor and then sing the refrain where indicated.

Wor - ship the LORD, O Je - ru - sa - lem;
praise your God, O Zi - on.

Worship the LORD, O Jerusalem; *
praise your God, O Zion,
who has strengthened the bars of your gates; *
and has blessed your children within you.
God has established peace on your borders; *
and satisfies you with the finest wheat.
God sends out a command to the earth, *
a word that runs very swiftly. REFRAIN

God gives snow like wool; *
 scattering hoarfrost like ashes.
 God scatters his hail like bread crumbs; *
 who can stand against God's cold?
 The LORD sends forth the word and melts them; *
 the wind blows, and the waters flow.
 God declares the word to Jacob, *
 statutes and judgments to Israel.
 The LORD has not done so to any other nation; *
 they do not know God's judgments. Hallelujah! REFRAIN

Second Reading

Galatians 3:23-25; 4:4-7

Janette Gautier

Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian.

But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!" So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Gospel

John 1:1-18

Deacon Horace Whyte

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. He came as a witness to testify to the light, so that all might believe through him. He himself was not the light, but he came to testify to the light. The true light, which enlightens everyone, was coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world came into being through him; yet the world did not know him. He came to what was his own, and his own people did not accept him. But to all who received him, who believed in his name, he gave power to become children of God, who were born, not of blood or of the will of the flesh or of the will of man, but of God.

And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. (John testified to him and cried out, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me ranks ahead of me because he was before me.'") From his fullness we have all received, grace upon grace. The law indeed was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. No one has ever seen God. It is God the only Son, who is close to the Father's heart, who has made him known.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Reverend Joseph Parrish

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son
he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People • Form II BCP, page 385

During the silence after each bidding, the people offer their own prayers, silently or aloud.

Leader I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Presiding Bishop, Michael, and our Bishops Andrew, Allen, and Mary; for this gathering; and for all ministers and people. Pray for the Church.

Silence

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well being of all people. Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the oppressed, those in prison, the poor, the sick, the hungry; for those on our prayer list. Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Silence

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him. Pray that they may find and be found by him.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the departed. Pray for those who have died, and for those who mourn.

Silence

I ask your thanksgiving for those in our parish, especially those who celebrate birthdays this week: Mary Belmont and Sarah Vanderbrouk..

Silence

Members of the congregation may ask the prayers or the thanksgivings of those present, saying either:

I ask your prayers for _____.
or I ask your thanksgiving for _____.

Silence

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored. Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.

Silence

All Hasten, O Father, the coming of your kingdom; and grant that we your servants, who now live by faith, may with joy behold your Son at his coming in glorious majesty; even Jesus Christ, our only Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

The ministers and people may greet one another in the name of the Lord, then all are seated.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Solo

O holy night

Adolphe Charles Adam (1803-1856)

O holy night! The stars are brightly shining,
It is the night of our dear Saviour's birth.
Long lay the world in sin and error pining,
'til he appeared and the soul felt its worth.
A thrill of hope, the weary world rejoices,
for yonder breaks a new and glorious morn.
Fall on your knees! O hear the angel voices!
O night divine! O night when Christ was born;
O night divine! O night, O night divine!

Truly he taught us to love one another;
his law is love and his gospel is peace.
Chains shall he break for the slave is our brother;
and in his name all oppression shall cease.
Sweet hymns of joy in grateful chorus raise we,
let all within us praise his holy name.
Christ is the Lord! O praise his Name forever,
his power and glory evermore proclaim.
his power and glory evermore proclaim.

Please stand and join in singing:

Presentation Hymn 93 Angels, from the realms of glory stanzas 1 & 4

Dix

Angels, from the realms of glory, wing your flight o'er all the earth;
ye, who sang creation's story,
now proclaim Messiah's birth:

Saints before the altar bending, watching long in hope and fear, suddenly the Lord, descending,
in his temple shall appear:

Refrain Come and worship, come and worship, worship Christ, the newborn King.

Great Thanksgiving

Eucharistic Prayer B

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Because you gave Jesus Christ, your only Son, to be born for us; who, by the mighty power of the Holy Spirit, was made perfect Man of the flesh of the Virgin Mary his mother; so that we might be delivered from the bondage of sin, and receive power to become your children. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus S-130

Deutsche Messe • Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might,

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, hea - ven and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The people may remain standing or kneel.

Celebrant We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Celebrant Therefore, according to his command, O Father,
All we remember his death, we proclaim his resurrection,
 we await his coming in glory;

Celebrant And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread S-164

Jesus, Lamb of God

Deutsche Messe • Franz Schubert

The Celebrant breaks the bread, and a period of silence is kept, then all sing:

Je - sus, Lamb of God: have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, bear - er of our sins: have mer - cy on us.

Je - sus, re - deem - er, re - deem - er of the world:

give us your peace, give us your peace.

Invitation to Communion

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

At the Communion

All baptized persons are welcome to receive communion. Children are welcome, and parents should indicate whether a small child receives. Please receive the wafer of bread in your open and outstretched hands. Take hold of the chalice firmly and guide it to your lips. If you prefer to receive by intinction, please dip the wafer in the wine, or offer the wafer to the Chalice Bearer, who will dip it in the wine for you.

Welcome to the Church of the Epiphany

If you are new to Epiphany, welcome! If you would like to stay connected, please fill out a welcome card and place it in the offering plate, or give it to an usher or clergy person. We hope you leave inspired and refreshed and that you return soon. Please stay for coffee hour at the rear of the church following the service, and look for a welcomer wearing a purple and blue nametag if you have any questions or just want to see a friendly face!

Sunday School for children ages 3-10 begins at 10:30am downstairs in the purple classroom. They return to join the service after the offering.

Children of any age are welcome at worship. Feel free to sit near the front of the church, left of the center aisle, so they can see and follow what is going on. Crayons and a paper based on the scripture for today are available from an usher. If your child becomes restless, we also have a quiet area in the rear of the nave with a sofa and soft toys. Please feel free to go there where you may supervise their quiet play and continue to participate in the service.

If you have toddlers with you, childcare is provided for children under age three on Sundays from 9:30am to 12:00 noon in the nursery downstairs in the green room.

Welcoming all, we are building a dedicated Christian community that seeks to know God and to serve others.

Welcome the Rev. Joseph Parrish

Please give a warm Epiphany welcome to our supply priest for today's services, the Rev. Joseph Parrish.

Joe Parrish was ordained in the Diocese of New York in 1986 and served as Rector of St. John's Church in Elizabeth, NJ for 24 years. He loves science, has a PhD in Biological Chemistry and an MBA from Harvard. Jan and he have been married 43 years but have no children. He has recently been accepted to a medical school in Antigua and plans to complete his MD there, Lord willing.

Album of Memories for Jennifer

We are putting an album of letters, photos and tributes together to give to the Rev. Jennifer Reddall as a parting gift. We are sure many of you have special memories to contribute. Please email your thoughts and photos to Larry Long (long@epiphanynyc.org) or get them to the church office as soon as you can.
